Response to Amendment

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments, see Remarks pages 6-9 of Applicant Arguments, filed 09/25/2007, with respect to the objection to the drawings, the written description, and the 35 USC 112 2nd paragraph rejections of claims 1, 3 and 6 have been fully considered and are persuasive, especially in light of the amendments made to the claims. The objections and rejections of the claims have been withdrawn.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Thomas Champagne at 4:17 on Dec. 19, 2007.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 1 has been amended as follows: the line "wherein said central body includes a shaped notch in the form of an open-ended slot, wherein said notch" has been

Art Unit: 3774

amended to say --wherein said central body includes a shaped notch in the form of an open-ended slot, wherein the shaped notch is a solitary notch, wherein said notch—

Claims 2-4 and 6-10 remain unchanged.

Claim 11 has been cancelled.

Claim 12 remains unchanged.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: no suitable art could be found that anticipated or made obvious the independent claim, as amended. Further, it should be noted that patent 6,193,759 includes a bore that could be interpreted as a "slot" that passes through the thickness; however, applicant's phrase "passing through a thickness of said central body from an anterior side to a posterior side of the femoral stem" is considered, in light of the specification, to mean completely and uninterruptedly passing, for the length of the slot, through the thickness of the central body from an anterior side to a posterior side of the femoral stem.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
